FORSYTH RACING OF QUALITY.

It was chilly at Forsyth yesterday, but the track was in good shape, the attendance large, and the racing fair to see. Four pronounced favorites, a heavily backed second choice and an outsider scored, and the public did less than badly. The starting machine was used in all the races. In a breakaway, Mildred D. carried away the rubber band, but did not break it.

In the third race, Pert, after winning, was run up to $500, $300 over her entered price, by Jim Givins, and bought in by her owner G. L. Bell. Mrs. Morgan, in the fifth event at seven furlongs, opened at 4 to 1 and went back to 8 to 1. The judges did not like this financial depression and Stoval was replaced as the mare's jockey by Warren. The price against the mare was cut at once to 4½ and 4 to 1. She ran, however, a shocking bad race.

In the opening event at five furlongs, Tramp, whose recent past was shabby, was made favorite. He went to the front at once and, never headed, won easily. Lottie also showed sharp improvement.

Pat Malloy Jr was installed favorite in the second event at six furlongs. There was some trouble at the start and when the lot got away Cerita was actually left at the post, and Little Jerry practically so. La Salle and Mr Dunlap raced in front to the stretch, then Pat Malloy Jr, who had got off badly, came up and won easily from Mr Dunlap. Stoval rode Character well and secured third place.

There was some lively betting on the third event at 5 furlongs. Anna Mayes opened favorite, with Lollie Eastin and Pert as rivals. Pert was backed down from 3 to 2 to 1, but Ben Falk stood the play at 2½ to 1. It was a costly notion for Falk. Anna Mayes had a slight call at the post. Pert went to the front soon after the start, and, never being headed, won by a length, Lollie Eastin defeating the 100 to 1 shot, Bob Lee, by two lengths for the place. Anna Mayes was never better than third, and tired at the finish. Then Weola and John Hickey, favorites, and Marden Pet, 8 to 1, landed their races.

The attraction at Sheffield on the opening day Saturday, May 2, will be a special race at a mile, with Dr. Rice, Redskin and Magnet as contestants. It was intended to have this race at Forsyth on Saturday, but Dr. Rice's hoof has spread, and he cannot be got ready by that time.

Louis Ezell arrived yesterday from California with six horses, among them being Hankins & Johnson's two-year-old colt, Sutton, a full brother to Diggs.

Brown Dick's string consists of Forerunner ch. h. a.; La Creole ch. f. 4; Pinchback b. f. 3; Terra Archer ch. g. 3; Debrosses b. c. 2, by Deceiver—Miss Charmer; Terrific ch. f. 2, by Terra Cotta—Emma B; Brown Girl b. f. 2, by Bramble—True as Steel, and Mabel Jones b. f. 2, by Fonso—Mabel Duffy.

In future there will be no recall after the starting machine has once been sprung. This rule will go into operation to-day, and it will teach the boys not to toy and hold back and get a running start. They must line up and get away directly the rubber is released.

ALGOT'S BRAMBLE STAKES.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 22.—C. Weatherford's Algot won the Bramble Stakes to-day in a drive from Goshen, the odds-on favorite, Boanerges, being last. It was only a three-horse race and McGuigan is sore over the ride Perkins gave his colt. Considerable talk was created over the ride Thorpe gave Robert Latta in the mile and one-eighth race. It certainly looked as though the boy did not try his best, but the judges overlooked it. The closest finish and the greatest surprise came out of the last race. Sycamore, what at some stages of the betting was 100 to 1, winning by a neck.

Barney Barnato's Prize.

LONDON, April 22.—The City and Suburban Handicap, one and a quarter miles, value 1000 sovereigns, was run to-day at Epsom and won by Barney Barnato's chestnut horse Worcester, with Amandier second and Hebron third. There were sixteen starters, among them Montank.
